

The Church Point Pentecostals

Young Married Ministry

Class Coordinator:
Johnny Gibbs

Event Coordinators:
Chance and Danielle Angelle

This ministry unites the young married couples of The Church Point Pentecostals providing support and teaching on the real expectations and experiences of a new marriage. Classes focus on practical issues confronting most couples in society today. Pre-marriage counselings and classes are also available.

The young married couples also plan one fellowship event each month. These events are always focused on fun and excitement, as well as bringing unity to all participants. For further information, please see the event coordinators.

Mission

To provide a positive and uplifting atmosphere for all young married couples at The Church Point Pentecostals. To provide all young married couples with the information and support they need to make their marriage thrive.

Vision

To engage each married couple in a way that will bring success to their marriage, as well as ensure the success of the church's 20/20 vision.

Passion

Reversing the trend of the instability and uncertainty of marriage.
